Sixty couples attended the annual spring dance in the chapel at Goodard seminary last evening. The affair was one of the most enjoyable of the school year and the attendance included a large number of alumni, former students and friends of Goodard. Music was furnished by Bruce's orchestra and at intermission a number of young women of the school served ice cream, cake and wafers. The dance was given under the auspices of the Universalist church.

Among those who had charge of the affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cutler and Mrs. Smith.

By special arrangement the management of the Pavilion has secured for Tuesday, hospital day, "Lottie Goodman and Escort," the English dancing act, a refined singing and acrobatic act, a European novelty offering, introducing laughable situations and character changes. There will also be Mazie Rowland in a pianologue act. Miss Rowland has just finished what is known among show people as the big time and is playing here at a much higher salary than usually paid for such acts, owing to the fact that the management wishes to have an extra good show for this occasion. There will also be an extra good program of pictures.—Adv.

Plans have been completed for the production of the big minstrel show by the South Barre grange on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, March 24-25, at Unity hall in South Barre. Under the direction of Guy George and William Robertson, the cast has attained a point that will make the minstrel show one of the biggest undertakings ever attempted by the South Barre grange. The personnel of the cast is composed mostly of members of the grange. The first part will be devoted to the grand olio, many prominent soloists have been secured to render vocal solos, while several novelties will be introduced. Alex. Milne will act as interlocutor. Surrounding him will be found a galaxy of blackface comedians of such well known figures as Archie Adams, Guy George and Cassius Camp. Arrangements are made for one of the most elaborate second parts ever undertaken by local minstrel. Barges will be at the disposal of the Barre patrons who will visit during the two nights' session.
